Re: United States v. Marat Lerner
Criminal Docket No.: 23cr00015(NGG)

Dear Judge Garaufis:

On behalf of my client, Marat Lerner, I write to respectfully request that his Sentencing Hearing, currently scheduled for September 24, 2024, be adjourned for thirty (30) days.

This request is necessary because I need more time to prepare a sufficient sentencing memorandum on behalf of Mr. Lerner. I have been helping my mother care for my very ill stepfather, and it has been very time consuming. I would like to devote the appropriate amount of time to preparing Mr. Lerner's sentencing memorandum and a family illness shouldn't cause me to devote less time than necessary to Mr. Lerner's matter.

The Government objects to this request. This is defendant's second application for the requested relief.

Wherefore, I respectfully request that the Sentencing Hearing be adjourned for 30 days to a date after October 24, 2024, or any date thereafter that is convenient and available to the Court and the Government. I thank Your Honor in advance for your consideration of this application. T

Respectfully Submitted,

/S/ Tony Mirvis
